

Finding The Answers You Need

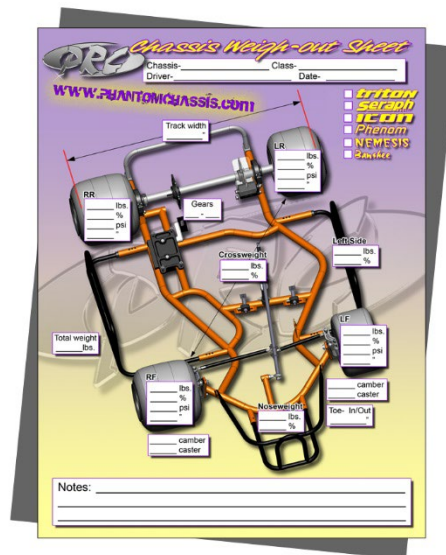

Phantom Racing Chassis understands that you may have questions regarding your new chassis, the parts included, or questions regarding assembly and setup. No matter how complex or how simple of a question you have, PRC wants to provide you with all of the information you need to be successful. With this in mind, Phantom Racing Chassis has several very informative avenues which will provide you with the information you seek.

Technical Support

Every new chassis includes a detailed Owner's Manual which contains a wide variety of information regarding chassis assembly, setup, adjustments, and recommended settings. It is highly recommended that you take the time to read through your owner's manual before assembling your chassis. Even if you are an experienced racer, there is information provided in each manual which you may find helpful.

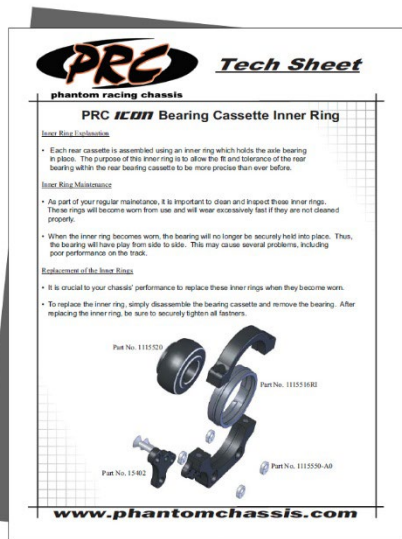

If you need further assistance, it is recommended that you contact the Phantom Dealer whom you purchased your chassis. This dealer has been recognized by PRC for their abilities and they should be more than able to assist you with any questions you may have.

Finally, Phantom Racing Chassis is always available for support. Technical questions may be sent in via email or placed over the telephone during normal business hours. Whichever avenue you prefer, PRC will do whatever is necessary to ensure you receive the answers you need.

Online Technical Data

Phantom Racing Chassis offers a wide variety of technical information electronically as well. Setup sheets, technical product sheets, and instructional videos can all be found at www.phantomchassis.com. Under the "Technical" tab on the website's homepage, you will find a vast array of resources and data that you may find helpful. This information is kept current and updated as trends change throughout the industry. Make no mistake, the information provided to customers is the exact same information used by PRC.

If you have a question regarding a chassis component or PRC part, explore the electronic resources provided by PRC to see if your answer may lie within.

Contact PRC

Finally, Phantom Racing Chassis wants you to know we appreciate your business and we are here to assist you in any way possible. Our staff is courteous, knowledgeable, and trained to support you. If you have a question or concern, please do not hesitate to contact your nearest PRC Dealer or PRC Directly.
